

PEPTIDE PURIFICATION

This service includes chromatographic separation on a preparative C18 column of the peptide corresponding to the requested full sequence, removing contaminant truncated chains, and subsequent purity analysis by LC-MS.

The user will receive the lyophilized peptide along with the chromatogram and mass spectrum. When the peptide has not been synthesized by the service, the user must provide all available information about it.