

- 100 ml of sample at a concentration of 10 ng/μl for an optimized chromatographic separation analysis. For direct injection analysis five times higher concentration is recommended.
- If possible, samples should be submitted dissolved in water, methanol, acetonitrile or any of their combinations.